WCS Benny Napoleon Offers Condolences to the Taylor PD, Loved Ones Of Officer Killed in the Line of Duty

Detroit — Wayne County Sheriff Benny Napoleon joins all members of law enforcement in offering his condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of Officer Matthew Edwards, killed in the line of duty.

“My thoughts and prayers are with the loved ones, friends, and everyone who knew and worked with Officer Matthew Edwards. The violence that claimed the life of this veteran officer shows the true dedication of our sworn personnel. Each day they place themselves in harm’s way to make sure citizens are protected. As evidenced by this tragedy, no run is routine. I—along with the men and women of the Wayne County Sheriff’s office—offer my sincere condolences and prayers to Chief Dale Tamson, Taylor Police and the entire community in the wake of their tremendous loss.”
