MAN SURRENDERS TO WCSO EXECUTING COURT ORDER

Subject taken to local hospital for evaluation.

Detroit (October 6, 2011) — On Thursday, October 6, 2011 investigators with the Wayne County Sheriff's Office successfully took a man into custody after the man initially refused to cooperate. Officers went to the apartment in the area of Greenfield and Vassar around 12:30 p.m. to execute the Court Order from Judge Maher. However, the 58-year-old man retreated into the home armed with a hammer. It was unclear if anyone else was inside the dwelling. After two hours of communicating with the subject—with help from concerned family members—the situation was resolved peacefully when the man emerged from the location and surrendered. He was transported to a local hospital for evaluation. WCSO personnel cleared the scene about 3 p.m.
