WCSO AND HIGHLAND PARK PD TEAM UP TO DETER ANGEL'S NIGHT CRIME

Sheriff announces officers will help HP increase Halloween safety.

Wayne County (October 19, 2011) – Angel's Night/Halloween vigils in Highland Park will have a few more officers patrolling the streets this year to keep residents safe. Sheriff Benny N. Napoleon is joining forces with Mayor Hubert Yopp and Chief Lorenzo Veal to increase police presence in that city. Sheriff Napoleon agreed to partner with Highland Park in response to mounting safety concerns. Last week local media reported parts of the city are literally in the dark due to fewer street lights. That has many worried about public safety, particularly during Halloween.

"Because of the lack of illumination in the City of Highland Park, I reached out to Wayne County and Sheriff Napoleon answered the call," said Mayor Hubert Yopp. "In partnership with our own Police Department, Fire, citizen patrol volunteers, and businesses we're going to do all we can to increase security during the Angel's Night Weekend."

On Friday, October 21, 2011 at 1:30 p.m., Sheriff Napoleon will join Mayor Yopp at a Highland Park Mini-Station at 15115 Woodward Avenue to talk about the joint operation. We invite you to meet with these leaders on why the collaboration is so vital to the citizens of Highland Park.

HIGHLAND PARK MAYOR HUBERT YOPP

WHERE: 15115 WOODWARD AVE.
