WCSO 1ST ANNUAL “OFFICER OF THE YEAR” AWARDS CEREMONY

Sheriff Benny N. Napoleon, Local 3317 & WCDSA/POAM recognize officers for dedication to police and public service

Wayne County (December 2, 2011) – At a ceremony filled with family, friends and various law enforcement leaders, Sheriff Benny N. Napoleon along with Local 3317 and WCDSA/POAM will commemorate and honor a select group of officers for their exceptional achievement, heroism and genuine commitment to the law enforcement profession and the community they serve.

“I am committed to recognizing and honoring officers who demonstrate acts that exceed the normal expectation of job performance,” said Sheriff Benny N. Napoleon. “These officers have all demonstrated the acumen to really inspire the rank and file to follow them and do the things that this organization expects.”

Members of the Sheriff’s Office will be recognized as Officers of the Year and Supervisors of the Year and awarded Wound Decorations, Life Saving Citations, Sheriff’s Office Citations of Valor and Sheriff’s Citations.

We invite the Media to come out and cover this event as we highlight officers who represent the best of what is expected of a member of the Wayne County Sheriff’s Office.
