WCSO DELIVERS HOLIDAY CHEER TO AREA KIDS

Sheriff Napoleon, deputies fulfill Christmas wishes, thanks to donations

Wayne County (December 20, 2012) – Christmas will be a little brighter for about 200 needy children throughout Wayne County after Sheriff Benny N. Napoleon and his deputies deliver gifts on Christmas Eve (Monday, December 24). Sheriff Napoleon and dozens of his dedicated deputies (Santa's Helpers) will visit children who have been pre-selected to receive gifts based on their family's financial need.

"There's no better feeling than knowing you've done something to make a child smile," said Sheriff Napoleon. "Too many people are having to curb their seasonal celebration because they just cannot afford it. Thanks to the tremendous support from our corporate sponsors, individuals and our fundraising partners –Local 3317 and WCDSA/POAM--we can make the holiday dreams of kids in Wayne County come true."

Proceeds from the Sheriff's annual "No Child Without a Christmas" fundraiser and donations pay for the toys, clothing and personal care items. Nearly all the gifts come from the wish lists children provide to program coordinators.

Media are invited to ride along with Sheriff Napoleon and his merry elves as they visit several homes to help kids smile this Christmas.
