BOATING SAFETY COURSE
2027

Sheriff Raphael Washington

Starting in March 2027, Basic Boating Safety Courses will be offered by the Wayne County Sheriff's Marine Division in collaboration with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the Detroit International Wildlife Refuge. These courses are scheduled to take place at the John D. Dingell Jr. Visitor Center, located at 5437 West Jefferson Avenue, Trenton, MI 48183, within the Detroit River International Wildlife Refuge.

All classes will begin at 5:00 p.m. each night and will conclude at 9:00 p.m.

Classes are limited to the first 25 people.

Each "course" consists of two (2) class nights as indicated below. To complete the course, students must attend both class nights. Students must pre-register for this course. To register, please click on the "Register Here" link below for the specific date you are interested in. You may also go to the Michigan DNR website, create an account and search for your boater safety course there. Click Here: Boater Safety Education Courses
Any questions please call the Wayne County Sheriff's Marine Division at 734-675-2660. Due to a limited class size if you cannot attend, please cancel your reservation as soon as possible so that those on the waitlist can attend. Children under 15 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.
